

ADVOCATE SUJATA SHIRASI

Phone: +91 93216 13691

Date: 29 July 2025

TO:

Mr. S. Ahmed Ali

Principal Correspondent - Crime

The Times of India, Mumbai

CC:

Editor-in-Chief, The Times of India, Mumbai

Shri Vishwas Nangare Patil, IPS

ADGP, Anti-Corruption Bureau, Maharashtra

Worli Police Camp, Worli, Mumbai - 400 030

Subject: Legal Notice for Defamation and Malicious Reporting Against Mr. Tarun Thadani

This legal notice is issued on behalf of my client Mr. Tarun Thadani in reference to the following defamatory articles authored and published by you:

- "Two bizmen chargesheeted for assault, Rs 1 crore extortion bid in '22" - 22 June 2023

- "Bizman denied discharge in assault case" - 31 March 2024

1. False Publication: You published my client's name without verifying facts, even though he was not present during the alleged incident.
2. Concealment of Real Accused: You intentionally avoided naming Mr. Abhishek Badriprasad Saraf, the actual complainant, who is involved in multiple fraudulent cases and real estate scams.
3. Bribery Allegation: It is strongly alleged that you received illegal payment from Mr. Saraf in exchange for suppressing his name and falsely highlighting my client.
4. Lack of Due Diligence: The articles are baseless, misleading, and demonstrate no journalistic investigation or verification from court records or law enforcement.

ADVOCATE SUJATA SHIRASI

Phone: +91 93216 13691

5. Character Damage: Mr. Tarun Thadani is a respected entrepreneur and family man. Your articles have caused irreversible damage to his name and reputation.

6. Criminal Offences: Your actions attract liability under:

- Section 499 & 500 IPC - Criminal Defamation
- Section 504 & 506 IPC - Intentional Insult and Criminal Intimidation
- Section 120B IPC - Criminal Conspiracy
- Prevention of Corruption Act - If bribery is established

7. Legal Demands:

- Publish a written apology and correction naming Abhishek Saraf as complainant.
- Remove all defamatory content from digital and print archives.
- Disclose the source and motivation for publishing my client's name without basis.

This notice is being issued as per the law, and if the above issues are not addressed, legal action will be initiated before the Hon'ble Courts of Mumbai and relevant authorities.

For and on behalf of Mr. Tarun Thadani

Adv. Sujata Shirasi

Phone: +91 93216 13691